DETAILED ACTION

The Group and/or Art Unit location of your application in the PTO has changed. To aid in correlating any papers for this application, all further correspondence regarding this application should be directed to Group Art Unit 1637.

Election/Restriction

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

Group I, claim(s) 1-12, drawn to a method for producing released of intracellular material from a cell or more cells comprising applying a voltage to a suspension containing said cells, classified in class 435, subclass 173.7.

Group II, claim(s) 13-21, drawn to a method of producing a single stranded nucleic acid from a double stranded nucleic acid which is released from cells by applying a voltage, a process of amplifying, replicating and hybridizing a target nucleic acid sequence in which the nucleic acid sequence is released from a cell and denatured by applying a voltage, classified in class 435, subclass 6 and 91.1. If Group II is elected, then applicants must also elect either specie A or B as described below.

2. Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions, Group I is drawn to a method to release intracellular material from cells by applying a voltage to a cell suspension, while Group II is drawn to a method of amplification, replication and hybridization in which a single stranded nucleic acid sequence is from double stranded nucleic acid sequence released from cells and the nucleic acid sequence is prepared by applying voltage in a cell suspension. Thus, they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects. Therefore, they are distinct invention.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Claims 13-17 are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising: the species A is a method to amplify and replicate a single stranded nucleic acid and the species B is a method to hybridize a single stranded nucleic acid sequence with a probe for detection. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. A telephone call was made to Mr. Peter Vandervegt on 11/04/2002 to request an oral election to the above lack of restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Art Unit: 1637

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(I).
